- Continued customer growth
 - Subscribers: total increase of 4,210 net VoIP customers during Q1
 - 2,268 net VoIP customers in Norway
 - 1,475 net VoIP customers in Denmark
 - Revenues: NOK 94.3 million
 - Q1 revenues in line with Q4 07 revenue level, despite reduced termination prices from 1 January, Easter holidays in March and seasonality in general
- Financials
 - 61% gross margin
 - 24% EBITDA margin
 - Strongest operating profit ever of NOK 12 million, an increase of 193% (Q1 07: NOK 4.1 million)
 - OPEX continues to scale
 - Cash position: NOK 72.1 million (after repayment of bond loan)
- Customers & distribution
 - Strong development in SMB distribution
 - Healthy customer growth in Denmark

Growth opportunities

- Increasing customer base in residential market, at a lower pace and a lower cost
- Reduced activity in OTS channel from the end of Q1
 - Better provisioning rate
- Building distribution for SMB market shows promising progress

SMB - posed for strong growth until 2012

- According to results of Canalys' analysts research (April 2008):
 - SMB VoIP take-up so far has been very slow compared to Medium and Big enterprises
 - By 2012 it is expected that total share of SMB lines on VoIP will be 70 pct throughout EMEA
- Current number of SMB VoIP lines is just a few pct of total SMB lines in Norway and most of EU countries, so it will be growing in the order of magnitude
- Telio has a great value proposition, strong technological platform and newly established channels for effective SMB distribution

Norway - focus on profitable growth in SMB market

- Telio's acquisition cost for an SMB customer is less than half of the acquisition cost in the residential market
- Profit from an SMB customer is higher than for a residential customer
- Currently above 1,900 lines in the SMB market
- Strong growth in April
- Stronger focus on a direct distribution model, with 100 % focus on Telio
- Success with direct sales force and web
- Few competitors in the SOHO-segment
- Excellent value proposition for the SMB segment (price plan, installation, quality of service etc.)
